SAUND ATTACKS IKE, GOP PRESS

Democratic Congressman D. S. Saund last night charged that the Republican administration and a GOP-controlled press have vainly attempted to discredit the Democratic party for the actions of the 86th Congress.

Saund, representative from the 21st Congressional District, told some 300 resort area residents at a "Dollars for Democrats" dinner that the administration first obstructed the Democrats in Congress and then tried to shift the blame for its own actions.

HE PARTICULARLY cited the exercise of the presidential veto in a manner "not known in the oldest annals of Congress" as an attempt to create an illusion of disunity in Democratic ranks.

"They attempted to discredit the Democrats for the work of the Republican party in Congress," Saund charged in his address at the Chi Chi Starlite Room, "and you were led to believe that the Democrats are not united."

"But," he added, "nothing could be further from the truth."

SAUND ALSO claimed that the press and news media was another instrument used in a campaign to discredit the Democrats to weaken their support in the 1960 elections.

"It is shameful how some interests control the media of information," he said.

Saund was particularly critical of the use of the Presidential veto in such important matters as the Democrat-sponsored housing bill, which, the Congressman pointed out, was hampered but not hamstringed.

"President Eisenhower did not succeed in obstructing the real objectives of the Democrats," he asserted.

College to Plan For 1,000 Pupils

(This is the last of a series of three articles on the new junior college to be built in Coachella Valley. Today's article describes the college, explains why it is needed and touches on social and economic aspects of the project.)

By DICK ROWDEN
Present plans for the College of the Desert call for the initial erection of six major buildings designed to accommodate up to 1,000 students.

Officials expect enrollment the first year to total around 500 students. This, they figure, will increase by about 10 to 20 per cent each year until it reaches 1,000 in five years.

ALLOWANCES HAVE been made for the addition of new buildings to handle future growth

"The administration refused to use funds from excise and gasoline taxes which were available in the Treasury," Saund declared.

THE CONGRESSMAN also lashed out at the proposed elevation of interest rates, which the Democrats refused to accept because "we're not ready to turn the nation's economy over to the bankers today."

Congressman Saund asked why the Republicans were forced to increase bond interest rates to fund a $29 billion debt accumulated in six years when the previous administration "was able to fund a $200 billion war debt without increasing interest rates."

Emphasizing the unity of the Democrats in Congress, Saund noted that "we were not defeated—we produced constructive legislation."

SAUND EVINCED a strong measure of optimism over the fate of the Democratic party in next year's election, but he cautioned party members against being lulled by "false sense of security."

He pledged the Democratic Party to pass a "constructive Civil Rights Bill" in the next session of Congress and promised that "we will have a Democratic President in the White House" after the next election.

"We will certainly never elect Richard Nixon to the presidency," he added in a brief oration attacking the aspirations of the vice president and the Republican Party.

CONGRESSMAN SAUND was preceded at the speaker's stand by State Controller Alan Cranston, who reported that "fiscal responsibility has been restored to California state government" by the Democrats since he took office.

Funeral services for Jeremiah Bently Haines, 49, will be held at 4 p.m., today, at Wielefs and Son Chapel, with Dr. James Blackstone, pastor of the Palm Springs Community Church, officiating.

An employee of the Palm Springs Post Office for seven years, Haines died Thursday night at Desert Hospital due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Haines Services Set Here Today

The six structures include: A science building; library; general classroom building for liberal arts studies such as history, English, etc.; combination building for administrative offices and classrooms; a physical education unit with gymnasium and locker facilities, and a campus center with cafeteria, snack bar, assembly room and student offices.

ALSO A PART of the campus will be a smaller building for workshops and maintenance facilities. Most of the buildings will be one story and connected by outside walkways. The type of architecture has not yet been determined.

Tentative plans have been made. See COLLEGE, Page 14

Fact-Finding Board Meets On Monday

Labor, Management To Discuss Strike With Ike's Team

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The fact-finding board set up by President Eisenhower in efforts to halt the steel strike today called on labor and management to start presenting their cases Monday.

The three-man board, headed by George W. Taylor, former chairman of the War Labor Board, was named by the President as the first step toward seeking an injunction under Taft-Hartley Act to end the strike for 80 days. The board was told to report to him by Oct. 18.

ACTING ON BEHALF of the panel, the Labor Department today sent telegrams to 78 steel companies and the United Steelworkers Union inviting them to submit testimony beginning at 10 a. m. (p.d.t.) Monday.

A spokesman said there was a possibility that the board would ask for additional time to study the matter if the testimony of either side was extensive.

THE SPOKESMAN said, however, that the testimony was expected to continue for no more than three or four days. The 12 major steel companies have a negotiating team to speak for them and only a few of the 66 smaller firms were expected to send witnesses.

The board will hold a special meeting at 11 a. m. (e.d.t.) Sunday to organize. It first will decide whether to go into the merits of the dispute or to confine its report to the question of as to whether a national emergency exists as a result of the 88-day-old strike.

AS THE BOARD started its machinery, top union officials drafted strategy for fighting the President's effort to send the 50,000 steelworkers back to their jobs under court orders.

Other labor leaders accused Eisenhower of "strike breaking" for invoking the Taft-Hartley labor law in the 88-day steel shutdown. The President used national emergency provisions of the law for the second time in four days when he took the first step Friday to force a no-strike "cooling off" period in the steel dispute.

TEEN-AGE GIRL ACCUSES PARENTS OF 'CRIME SCHOOL' SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—A young girl claims her mother and father taught five of their seven children how to steal and went along to direct the operation.

Marilyn Myers testified Friday in Municipal Court against her parents, Kenneth, 42, and Dolores, 36. They are accused of running a "crime school" for their children.

ELEANOR CELEBRATES 75TH BIRTHDAY, STARTS 2 NEW JOBS

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt celebrates her 75th birthday Sunday with a 21-candle birthday cake and two new careers to grow on.

About 28 friends and relatives will gather at her Hyde Park cottage for the party and a preview of one of the new careers—a series of interviews and discussion programs for a Boston educational television station.

The other new career is a teaching job on the faculty of Brandeis University, where Mrs. Roosevelt delivered her first lecture to a seminar on international law and organizations this week.

11 Desert Items For Supervisors In Monday Meet

Eleven agenda items concerning the desert area will face the Riverside County Board of Supervisors Monday in the Supervisory Chamber of the County Court House starting at 9 a. m.

Under miscellaneous matters, the board will act on recommendations to renew a lease to Erie L. Bacon Corporation, at Thermal Airport, and lease an office building to the Indio Chamber of Commerce at the fairgrounds.

Road matters before the county body will include approval of a map of Shadow Village Unit No. 2; hearing of a request from the Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce on the Banning-Idyllwild Road at Pine Crest Road; and listen to a recommendation to revise sign plan for Highway 60-70-99 near Cabazon.

Planning matters up for action by the Board will include recommendations to grant a permit to C. E. Maynard for a trailer park in the Blythe area. Similar action has been requested by C. Bartlett in the same area.

The supervisors will receive other recommendations to approve a plot plan for a boat sales and repair building at Salton Sea; to disapprove Liersch and Rodgers record of survey map in Cathedral City-Palm Desert area; to acquire for recreation purposes approximately 70 acres on the Colorado River near Blythe, and act on a request of acceptance of MacCarthy Road in the Palm Springs area.

In Rome, Italy 3,000 Attend Lanza Funeral

ROME (UPI)—Four jet-black horses drew the hearse of American Tenor Mario Lanza today in a traditional Italian funeral procession that blocked traffic for half a mile.

About 3,000 persons jammed the Roman Catholic Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary for the funeral service for the singer who died of a heart attack Wednesday at the age of 38.

LANZA'S GRIEF-stricken widow, the former Betty Hicks, had to be supported by friends. The four Lanza children, two girls and two boys, were grave-dug during the ceremony.

POLICE BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED

Dedication ceremonies will be held Monday by the Palm Springs Police Department for their new quarters in the Civic Center.

Ceremonies will start at 2 p.m., with the dedicatory address to be given by Erie Stanley Gardner, author of the Perry Mason detective series.

A ROSTRUM WILL be set up between the flag poles in front of the building, and invitations have been mailed to many local, county, and state dignitaries. The public is also invited to attend.

Introductions will be made of members of the City Council, City Manager Dan Wagner, Chief of Police August G. Kettmann, Gardner and John Peper, supervisor of Peace Officers Training for the State Department of Education.

FOLLOWING THE official dedication of the new building, the facility will be open to the public for inspection.

Jerry London of Radio Station KCMJ will be master-of-ceremonies. Rev. James Blackstone will give the invocation, and Rev. Fr. William Goodrow will give the benediction.

THE NEW POLICE Department yearbook, just off the presses, will be given out to people who attend the celebration, and to all future visitors to the building.

City Manager Dan Wagner said today that he has been assured that Tahquitz-McCallum, from Sunrise Way to the Airport, will be open for traffic next Monday, allowing visitors the first look at Palm Springs newest east-west street.

Ireland, Malaya Ask Resolution

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI)—Ireland and Malaya made plans today to formally propose to the U. N. General Assembly that Communist China be called upon to respect human rights in Tibet.

The two delegations planned to send the proposal to the assembly on Monday. They were heartened by a steering committee recommendation for a full-dress debate on the Chinese suppression in Tibet and were prepared to fight any move to pigeon-hole the issue in the assembly.

Traffic Group Urges 'Get Even Tougher' Policy

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The enforcement division of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Traffic Safety Conference has proposed that California adopt a "get even tougher" policy with traffic violators.

Chairman Benjamin H. Swig of the enforcement group recommended that laws now in use in the state of Connecticut be adopted by California.

This would mean that first offense speeders would have their licenses suspended for 30 days, second offenders for 90 days and third offenders an indefinite suspension.

Drunk drivers would lose their licenses for one year on the first offense, five years on the second and lose it entirely on the third.

The judges primarily opposed McCarthy's automatic suspension of licenses of first offense drunk drivers for six months. They asked Brown to order the action stopped.

By Governor Board Welcomes Check of Site

Governor Edmund G. Brown has been assured by the Coachella Valley Junior College Board that it would welcome an investigation of the college site controversy.

The reassurance was contained in a letter authorized by the board at its Thursday night meeting. The contents of the letter were not revealed until yesterday when the letter was approved by County Counsel Ray Sullivan.

THE LETTER deals largely with the disputed site which the board has purchased in Palm Desert from Amos Odell.

CAC Again Cites Danger To College

Aeronautics Chief Reaffirms Analysis Of Commission Team

SPECIAL TO THE DESERT SUN
California Aeronautics Commission today reaffirmed its opposition to the site selected by trustees of the College of the Desert.

In a letter to the Bureau of School Planning, State Department of Education, Clyde P. Barnett, director of Aeronautics, said that a resurvey of the Palm Desert Airpark and college site has not changed in any way the negative report previously submitted by the commission.

"WE FIND NO possible way to re-orient the flight pattern so that it would lessen either the hazard or the noise level on the proposed site," Barnett said.

The college board has maintained that the site is not hazardous, but last Thursday pledged to discontinue that it would keep an open mind on the matter and would not place the college in a location which would constitute a danger to students. This pledge came with an appeal for a "yes" vote in the bond election next Tuesday.

OPPOSITION TO the O'Dell Ranch site has been led by Hank Gogerty, owner of Desert Air Hotel and its adjacent Palm Desert Airpark, on the grounds that once a college is established there a move would be started to close the airpark due to the hazard to the college and noise factor.

Gogerty has filed a suit in Superior Court seeking to enjoin he trustees from continuing action on the O'Dell site.

BARNETT SAID the resurvey was the result of a question raised by Riverside County Counsel Ray Sullivan, who at a conference with California Aeronautics Commission officials in Sacramento asked whether the present runway patterns at the airpark might be extended so that they would not intersect with the school site.

"The prevailing wind in that area dictates the use of the north-west-southeast runway a high percentage of the time," Barnett said in his letter to Charles D. Gibson, chief of the Bureau of School Planning.

"TO LENGTHEN the pattern would only endanger the town of Palm Desert itself rather than the school. The tremendous growth of homes in this area would eventually leave only the school athletic field and other open areas as the only emergency area in the event of failure on takeoff, which is, of course, the most likely time that power failure occurs."

Originally the board obtained oral approval of the site from the California Aeronautics Commission. But, later the commission withdrew its okay after it said it received "additional information."

PD CHAMBER NETS $10,000 FOR P.R.

PALM DESERT — More than $10,000 has been contributed so far in the Chamber of Commerce's campaign here to raise $20,000 to finance a proposed public relations program to promote this community.

"The campaign's coming along real well," commented Dick Coffin, chairman of the 12-man fund raising committee, yesterday. He said that at present contributions were being sought from the smaller businesses in Palm Desert and that the larger firms would be approached later.

UNDER THE PROPOSAL, the public relations program would be built around the symbol of a golf ball on a tee and be handled by the Kennedy-Walker Advertising Company of Los Angeles.

The plan was first unveiled at a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Sept. 25 by Earl Kennedy, an official of the advertising firm.

He placed stress on publicizing the numerous golf courses in the immediate area of Palm Desert and seeking public recognition of the community as the "golf vacation capital of the world."

THE GOLF - BALL - on a - tee symbol would be placed on road signs, letterheads and brochures, according to the plan.

Meanwhile, some Chamber of Commerce members have reportedly registered objection to employing the Kennedy-Walker firm on the grounds that the $20,000 fee required is too high.

Coffin minimized the opposition, pointing out that if another firm did it for a lesser amount, the resulting publicity would be inadequate. "We'll probably have the Kennedy firm or none at all," he said.

COFFIN SAID HE understood a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors would probably be called for next Tuesday to settle the issue.

He said a contract for the job would not be signed with the Kennedy-Walker firm — if that company is definitely selected — until the goal of $20,000 has been reached.

CofC Events Calendar Now Being Prepared

Listing in the Events Calendar requires only date of event, name of event and place where it will be held. No other details are necessary.

When published by the Publicity Department of the Chamber of Commerce, the Events Calendar will be sent to an extensive list of travel editors, sports editors and society editors of newspapers throughout the country, as well as top magazine editors and various publications dealing with the subject of travel.

SAUND PRAISES HARRY OLIVER'S FOLKLORE LOVE

THOUSAND PALMS — Desert Rat Harry Oliver this week basked in the praise of one of his oldest admirers, Congressman D. S. Saund.

Oliver, the bewhiskered sage of old Ft. Oliver and publisher of the Desert Rat's Scrapbook, was rated by Saund as a ranking member of the elite few who chronicle American folklore.

"Harry should spend some time in Washington in the Department of Folk Lore at the Library of Congress," Saund remarked. "And I am going to see what I can do to help get him there."

The Congressman, speaking at a Thousand Palms "Dollars for Democrats" drive, said that "old timers who know and write of the Old West are few these days."

"To search for and gather the colorful bits of western and desert humor as Harry is able to, and present it as he does for posterity, should be a wider spread occupation," Saund asserted.

AF Cancels Air Warfare Shows

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Air Force has cancelled one of its two annual warfare shows that were criticized as extravagant.

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.), one of the chief critics of the air power demonstrations at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., Wednesday made public an exchange of letters with Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas, who revealed cancellation of the October show.

The senator said the Air Force still refused to make civilian observers pay their own way to the shows.

College Board Urges 'Yes' Vote Tuesday

Resolution Adopted at Trustees Meet

PALM DESERT — The Coachella Valley Junior College District Board of Trustees has issued an appeal to taxpayers to approve the $3,500,000 bond issue scheduled for balloting next Tuesday for construction of the new College of the Desert.

The appeal was in the form of a resolution passed by the board at Thursday night's meeting here.

"IF THE COLLEGE is to open in the near future, approval of the bonds is absolutely necessary. It is the board's considered judgment that by issuing bonds it can build and operate the college within the present 35-cent tax rate," the resolution stated.

"As far as the site is concerned, the board hereby goes on record that it promises to all voters its continued study of the relative merits of the Odell Ranch site (which it has purchased) and it pledges not to construct buildings on any site which it has reason to believe dangerous," the board said.

THE REFERENCE to the site was in connection with recent opposition to the proposed campus, which the board has purchased in Palm Desert near the Desert Air Hotel airport.

Persons against the site claim it is located too close to the airport for safety from planes landing and taking off there.

TOM SWANNER, blind veteran, is pictured with G.G., named after Golden Gate Field, San Francisco. The guide dog was acquired by Swanner as a replacement for his beloved Pilot, who was killed by a rattler last spring.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second and final article in a series on Tom Swanner, blind war veteran, who operates a newsstand at the Palm Springs Post Office.)

By JOAN WILCOXON

Best of all Tom Swanner likes to swap conversation with his book customers. His supply is up to the minute and there's hardly one he hasn't read or can't quote. If he hasn't got it, he'll get it if it takes six months.

We have a running gag, Tom and I. It's the "Greek Crucifixion." Simon and Shuster have reprinted on paper back, but after much exploitation, it isn't to be found. Tom's decided they're still translating it from the original Greek!

"HELPING CUSTOMERS buy books is the most fun, honey," he said. "I can't figure 'em right now by what they read. A person what wants 'Auntie Mame' will go for 'Lady Chatterley's Lover' or 'Payton Place.' People who read Earl Stanley Gardner will take almost anything."

Even though the "Greek Crucifixion" is still somewhere in space Tom has kept me busy with "The Dead Sea Scrolls," "The Lost Years of Jesus" and "The Bible Was Right." I didn't ask for them. He knew my reading interests and made the right suggestions.

"NOW HERE'S A real hot seller," he pointed to "The Late Liz." "This here book's got everything — sex and redemption. How can it miss? The preachers might condemn the first half, but they go right along with the second because like Mary Magdalene she repents."

"It's a shame though, these days books don't sell on their merits. They don't have to be moral or pornographic or well written. They just have to be advertised! Now you know 'Lady Chatterley's Lover' is pale compared to lots of better written things of that kind — if you want that kind — but it got advertised."

"LIFE'S SO SHORT I figure I'll never get 'em all read so I might as well get the best while I'm here. One good book a week and Newsweek from cover to cover about keeps me up to the times and like I say, the way I see it, life's pretty good all round, except for the chiselers, the bargain hunters. You can't bargain with the Lord — why try to do it with your fellow man?"

A teenager stepped over the huge German shepherd G.G. sprawled across the front of Tom's counters and bought a copy of Mad. "Now go home and get glad, boy," Tom laughed.

"YEA, THE WAY I see it, it's a bright world and if people just do like they want and don't hurt other people it can be bright all the time."

The dark world of Tom Swanner is something you have to worm out of him like the fact that his reading comes on records from the American House Printing for the Blind.

But when the facts are reluctantly told Tom grins and adds: "Like I say, as I see it, when they told me I'd never see again I was half glad! Well, don't you see? I was still alive when I could have been dead and never gotten the bride I waited ten years to find. This way I get to keep busy, and with G.G. to watch I don't bump my head and a good game of poker once a week — who's to complain?"

Vaccine Failure Blamed on Dose

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Dr. Jonas E. Salk, developer of the Salk polio vaccine, said this week any failure by the vaccine to provide protection can be blamed on "insufficient" strength of the first dose.

QUESTION:

Does a high relative humidity have any effect upon my refrigerated air conditioning system. I know that evaporating coolers do not operate as well.

ANSWER:

Yes, a portion of the capacity of the cooling coils is used to condense the water in the air (vapor form) thus reducing the refrigeration capacity required to lower the dry bulb temperature.

SUNDAY WORSHIP SERVICES were conducted at the Thousand Palms Community Chapel last Sunday for the first time since the chapel building was dedicated in May, 1950. The chapel was constructed through public subscription and volunteer labor donated by community residents.

Reality of Sin, Disease, Death To Be Discussed

The Lesson-Sermon to be heard in all Christian Science Churches Sunday answers the question, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" and selections from the Bible will be read to support the premise that they are not the fruit of the Spirit, God.

In his parable of the tares and the wheat, Jesus told of the householder's decision when he found that an enemy had sowed tares among his wheat: "Let both grow together until the harvest; and in time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn" (Matt. 13:30).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the passage, "Jesus strips all disguise from error, when his teachings are fully understood. By parable and argument he explains the impossibility of good producing evil; and he also scientifically demonstrates this great fact, proving by what are wrongly called miracles, that sin, sickness, and death are beliefs—illusory errors—which he could and did destroy" (p. 343).

The Golden Text is from Psalm, "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations" (Ps. 67:1, 2).

Jewish Holiday Begins Sunday With Kol Nidre

The most solemn and sacred Holy Day of the Jewish calendar begins with the inspiring and traditional Kol Nidre service at 8 p.m., Sunday.

The music of Kol Nidre will be chanted by Cantor Julius Blackman, assisted by the Temple Choir under the direction of Harry Tomlinson and with Christine Tomlinson at the organ.

On Sunday evening Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz will speak on "Higher Than Heaven."

Beginning at 10 a.m., Monday, Yom Kippur services will continue until 3:30 p.m. at which time there will be a special children's service.

The Memorial Service (Yizkor) will take place at 4 p.m. and the closing service (N'lo) follows until the traditional blowing of the ram's horn (shofar) at sundown concludes the Day of Atonement.

So that mothers may attend the service, there will be a baby sitting service provided all day Monday at the Center.

INITIAL CHURCH SERVICES HELD

THOUSAND PALMS — After 13 years of service as a community Sunday School, the Thousand Palms Community Chapel last Sunday held its first regular church worship service.

It was a significant milestone for the religious education center which was built by local volunteer laborers and dedicated in May, 1950.

THE FIRST WORSHIP services were conducted Sunday by Rev. Dan Claassen, of Thousand Palms, who will be the regular church minister.

Worship services will now be conducted at 11 a.m. every Sunday and a fourth Sunday school class, for junior and senior high school age groups, has been added to the school schedule.

The Thousand Palms Community Chapel began in 1946 with the formation of the Thousand Palms Sunday School by the American Sunday School Union and its missionary, Rev. Ray Perry, of San Bernardino.

SUNDAY SCHOOL sessions were first held in the Thousand Palms Elementary School building, but plans for construction of a chapel building were drawn when the school was vacated.

Community residents soon raised funds for construction materials and local citizens volunteered their services to erect the pumice-block structure which was dedicated as a community chapel in 1950. Land for the chapel was donated by the late Matt Malnick and Matt Simmons, developers of Shangri-La Palms.

Services Slated In Plaza Theater

The Church of Religious Science of Palm Springs resumes its services next Sunday, October 12, at the Plaza Theatre. In the absence of a resident minister, two outstanding guest speakers will occupy the platform this season, serving on alternate Sundays, Dr. Irma Glen and Dr. Barclay Johnson.

The Church of Religious Science is also happy to announce that Con Maffie, noted organist and resident of Palm Springs, will again be on hand to add his great talent to the services, which will commence at 10:45 a.m. with 15 minutes of prelude music, followed by the church service at 11 o'clock.

All Hail the Dodgers

All California joins joyously in hailing the Los Angeles Dodgers as the new World Champions of baseball.

In two short years since they moved from Brooklyn to the City of Angels, the fairy tale rise of the erstwhile "Bums" to the celebrated "Cinderella Boys" of today has brought about the most astounding changes in the baseball world.

By winning both the league pennant and the World Series championship, the Dodgers have made California the capital State of the great national pastime, with Los Angeles as the capitol, for at least one year.

At long last the Effete East, which has always regarded itself as exclusively superior in baseball, must finally bow to the West as "best."

Furthermore, the Dodgers have proven to Los Angeles and the Golden State that major league baseball is here to stay as a highly popular and successful sport.

The record breaking attendance and enthusiasm of millions of Angelenos and Californians everywhere in proud and enthusiastic support of "their teams" can leave no doubt that the West has become of age and will strongly support major league baseball with even greater appreciation in the future.

In parenthesis, it might well be noted here, also, that the other top contending California team, the San Francisco Giants, has made fine progress since coming West and added to interest and support in establishing major league baseball.

From every standpoint the double feat of the Dodgers in winning the League pennant and World Series is one of the most gratifying thrills ever experienced by most Californians and the fact that the eyes of the nation have been turned westward upon us, as they probably will be many times again in the future, cannot help but be a further boost to our many other celebrated attractions and advantages.

May the Dodgers wear their crown as world baseball champions well, and often.

Armed Forces' Morale

WASHINGTON, D.C. — In the military they have words for it. "Go see the chaplain and have a good cry!" is routine response to routine griping. But today, at one of the worst times in history, serious things are happening to the armed forces' morale.

To begin with top and recent events, there was the House investigation of improper influences conducted by Congressman Hebert of Louisiana. (Ed Hebert is a former newspaperman, a prober of good repute who habitually gets a favorable press, which he deserves. His past sleuthing has been into the contracts which Big Business has with the Armed Services. His laudable purpose has been to ascertain if the taxpayer is getting his money's worth.)

BUT AT THE past session, Hebert took another angle. He called to his witness chair high-ranking retired officers, asked them for the record how much they were making in private industry and almost challenged them to prove that they hadn't been hired for the influence they could bring to bear on their Armed Services alma maters.

Thus far the Hebert investigation has yielded little of importance, although it may, but it has damaged military morale from top to bottom. It has left bad tastes in the mouths of newsmen who regularly cover the military and are proud of it. The Hebert goal-post will have to bring home a very big bear to justify these debits.

THEN THERE IS this matter of disarmament. From a military viewpoint, it began when we abandoned the foreign policy called Massive Retaliation. The late Secretary Dulles enunciated this policy shortly after his Republican party was handed the House, Senate and Presidency on the promise to change and stiffen the Democratic party's ways of treating Communist aggression.

Aggressive statements were made about "unleashing" Nationalist China against the Reds, "liberating" the enslaved peoples of East Europe and employing Massive Retaliation at times, places and with weapons of our choice in response to Communist power plays. Every adult living today must recall how, reacting from the fright of timid allies and of local pacifists and leftists, the Administration softened these threats and backed away from the Brink of War.

AGAIN, CONSIDER the effect of an action upon military morale. You won't find it mentioned in the Pentagon press releases and I am not expecting any of the top brass to confirm my statements, but the Air Force and Navy, and the Army to a lesser degree, have been rebuilt since World War II to wield Massive Retaliation.

They possess the capabilities of delivering thermonuclear destruction anywhere on earth in defense of American liberty and in furtherance of American policy. It is not difficult to imagine how professional military men feel when told that all former signals are off, that all-out war in Mr. Eisenhower's words is "unthinkable," that we are going to substitute good-will exchange visits and hope for peace.

WHILE NOBODY "wants" a war, including soldiers, nobody wants to be considered obsolete and unimportant either. All this talk of world disarmament and worship of peace will turn out wrong if it leads to a downgrading of the military virtues and status. No nation ever existed except behind the shield of its armed forces. This is as true today as ever, maybe more so. Should the spirit of our standing forces suffer enough to affect efficiency, we will find ourselves in a state worse than war.

Dropping to a lower echelon, there is a condition described to me as "dry rot" among the middle aged ranks of service officers. Recent wage hikes for public servants, including the military and the Congress, have gotten no praise in this column.

MY OBSERVATION is that dedication, not lucre, is what brings the good men to serve the community. It is true of teachers, preachers, tech sergeants and lawmakers. We are overpaying Congressmen, to take a handy example, so that we're getting persons who couldn't begin to make as good a living away from Capitol Hill.

But military officers between 35 and 40 years old, in the grades of captain and major or their equivalents, are finding themselves stuck with no promotion in sight. The good ones don't care so much about the money as about the broadening of opportunity and responsibility. Under the system in vogue, there doesn't seem to be enough room at the top.

MAYBE THERE IS no official remedy for these ills. The times are out of joint for military glory. Budgets must be squeezed for every bang in every buck. Dream of peace must be pursued lest we wake up in what Mr. Khrushchev called "graves and ashes." Rapid expansion and contraction of Armed Forces numbers in recent years unavoidably has disrupted administrative practices.

But there is a remedy or at least a balm for the soldiers' ills. Among the other millions who returned from overseas duty in World War II, I was swept with feeling at the warmth of our welcome. As the Queen Mary steamed up New York harbor, the windows of the skyscrapers were bright with girls' dresses and waving handkerchiefs.

ON THE TRAIN trip to Camp Meade, people came to our open windows with fruit and candy bars. On our first trip to the baseball park while still in uniform the ticket takers laughed at our money and waved us in as guests.

Perhaps those times are not recapturable during peace or Cold War. But let us show honor to our standing forces. Let them feel welcome in the civilian community. Let them be assured that this Republic cannot live without them.

—Holmes Alexander

'Now—You Come Down to Me'

This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

He's gone home
 We're back to normal.
 Playing 'round,
 With clothes informal.

I wore a necktie last week more times than I have since my train trek last July.

AS I SAID last week, we got more publicity for free while Ike was here than we have had since he was here in 1954.

Half a hundred newsmen and radio personnel sent out thousands of words, plus scores of pictures.

And everyone of those stories started out with those two beautiful words: PALM SPRINGS.

ACCORDING to Merriam Smith, United Press International White House reporter, Ike may be back again this Winter.

The President and Governor Pat Brown of California, had a conference at the George E. Allen home in La Quinta, and, publicly, Ike was quoted as telling Pat that he'd be back in 15 months, meaning after he left office.

BUT, SAYS SMITH, Brown said afterwards, that the President had told him he liked his stay on the desert and the lush golf courses so well, that he might be back in two months.

That means he'll be back this Winter.

Which will make Palm Springs the temporary White House.

That should be good.

SOME OF THE STORIES going out of here under the Palm Springs date line might not be considered such good publicity by the Chamber of Commerce.

For instance, there was that one on Thursday, just before Ike took off for Washington.

Under a Palm Springs date-line it said: "Tonight, thanks to the jet, President Eisenhower can slumber peacefully in the White House at Washington, lulled to sleep by the gentle rumble of the street cars on Pennsylvania Avenue."

"HIS LULLABY SOUND EFFECTS at the desert home of George E. Allen, where he was a guest, have been something different. Allen's ground-buzzing tile-roof Villa nestles only a few yards from the base of a jagged rocky mountain.

"Nocturnal residents of the mountain include the Western coyote and those crafty creatures howled almost nightly as Secret Service agents manned their security stations along the low white brick wall around the house."

"THE AGENTS kept flashlights and pistols ready for another desert creature, the venomous sidewinder. This is one of the rattlesnake family but, fortunately, there none in the neighborhood."

Now I would like to inform Merriam Smith, not in anger, of course, because I like him, that I have been in Palm Springs right into 19 years and I have seen only three snakes and one of them was in Beverly Hills.

As for coyotes, outside of the one that raided our garbage can one night down on Olancha, I have seen none.

And I have never seen a skunk—but my nose told me that occasionally we have one.

Anyway, it was a great week.

LYLE C. WILSON

Washington Window

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Another show window opportunity for big labor to demonstrate its political muscle is coming up in the field of presidential politics.

This opportunity will come when the resolutions committees of the two major parties attempt to write the labor planks of their party platforms. Platform drafting is more than 10 months away.

HOW A VOTE for this year's labor bill could be reconciled in 1960 with another platform pledge to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act is a question which labor leaders and the Democrats will have to consider next year with some care.

Big labor's muscle is likely to be more effective in a Democratic national convention than in a Democratic Congress. That is the way it has been in the past and that is the way it is likely to be in the future.

IT IS A MATTER of persuasive record now that Democrats in the 1940 national convention were advised to "clear it with Sidney" before making basic political moves. "Sidney" was Sidney Hillman, the No. 1 labor leader in FDR's New Deal.

Vice President Alben W. Barkley had the endorsement of President Truman and Democratic National Chairman Frank McKinney for the 1952 presidential nomination. Labor leaders rejected him and Barkley quit cold. He knew when he was licked.

IT IS A MATTER of record that the UAW's Walter P. Reuther triggered the Democrats in 1956 to reject Averell Harriman and to nominate Stevenson for president, instead.

Any citizen or politician who thinks big labor has ceased to be an effective political force in the Democratic party is in for surprise and shock.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Warner Hosts Party

HOLLYWOOD — First business at hand for movie mogul Jack Warner, just back from his highly-publicized spurge at the roulette wheels in Monte Carlo, was to host a TELEVISION party.

Jack, who has paid off his studio overhead this past year producing such shows as 77 Sunset Strip, Maverick and Cheyenne, parlayed the party into a preview of Warner-TV's two new series, Hawaiian Eye, starring Chicagoan Bob Conrad, and Bourbon Street Beat.

TO GET THE critics and other previewers in the proper mood for the morning screenings, Jack ordered cocktails served — at 11 a. m. yet, an hour when a saloon-prowler such as your reporter feels like an unmade bed with the cruel morning sunlight sneering at it. However, like the guy in the Cole Porter lyric, I "laid off the likker" and can report it looks like two more Warner Winnahs.

Ex-Ambassador Joe Kennedy borrowed a sports car in Reno and drove through the whole State of Nevada plugging his son Jack for President. Joe's son-in-law Pete Lawford set it up with a barrister buddy of his to loan the car to Joe.

JUDI MEREDITH is getting the CBS-treatment as Earl Holliman's leading lady in one segment of the new CBSeries, Hotel de Paree. Although it's a Western located in the 1890's, the network nabobs agreed a 1960-type hairdo rests easier (and prettier) on Judi's pretty head.

Mae West's agents are trying to set up a flock of TV guest shots for her, so that she can plug her autobiography, "Goodness Had Nothing to Do With It." EARL WILSON:

Groucho a Riot Even at Dinner

NEW YORK — The Groucho Marxes came to dinner at the Four Seasons with the B.W. and me. The man who came to dinner proved to be the man who came to ad lib.

Sitting beside the pool, we discussed a certain celebrity's age. Groucho's wife Eden thought the man was 45. "Oh, he's older than that—he's 50," exclaimed the B.W.

"Fifty isn't old," snapped Groucho. "I consider anybody 50 a Boy Scout!"

A table away sat an official of General Aniline Corp. Groucho began singing, "Sweet-ee-et Aniline!"

Groucho said that the tycoon seemed pleasant. "But I find that hanging around rich people gets you nowhere. Rich people are damned dull."

"You're rich," I pointed out. "Yes, and I'm damned dull too!" barked Groucho.

He admired the restaurant. "Why is it," he asked, seriously, "that restaurants are always more beautiful than the people who frequent them?"

Groucho is pleased with the reaction to his book, "Groucho and Me," but he said, "I'm too old and too rich to care what anybody says about either my book or my program."

"If Hollywood does your book," I asked, "who would play you?" "Duke Wayne, of course—or Helen Twelvethrees."

"How long do you think Jack Paar can stay so big?" I asked. "As long as he has his health. He's under a terrific pressure. When I shake hands with him after doing the show, his hand feels like he's had it in a pitcher of water."

"Hey, General!" Groucho called over to the General Aniline Corp. tycoon. "What are you millionaires drinkin'?" (It was champagne.)

"We're drinkin' beer," Groucho said. "We're peasants."

Groucho said that a cab driver invited him home to dinner. "I told him I couldn't quite make it—I had a date at the Colony. I should have gone with him—it would have been cheaper."

His daughter Melinda, 13, is a special treasure. She's fond of water - skiing. Groucho therefore will only play summer stock in theaters near water, so Melinda can water-ski.

"I phoned her from here the other night and asked her how she liked the first program," Groucho reported. "She said, 'Wonderful—what are you bringing me?'"

Sinatra took up the chase but decided it was best to go to the police. At first he demanded that Kykendahl be arrested, but later he said to "forget the whole thing," and no citation was issued.

LIVELY AUTUMN FOR N.Y. STAGE

By JACK GAVER

NEW YORK (UPI) — New York is its lively autumn self again — always the best time of year here — what with the new theatrical season, night clubs reopening, new TV shows to fuel conversation and the general sparking of the city's tempo after summer's lassitude.

The renewal of night life entertainment at this time is especially important in setting the tone of a new "season."

THE HUGE LATIN Quarter, one of the few big night clubs left in a city that used to have many of them, goes the year 'round, of course, but it turns up with a new production each fall. Comedian Jack Carter has headed the current extravaganza of specialty acts and girls, girls, girls.

You can set your calendar each year by the mere arrival of comedian Joe E. Lewis at the Copacabana where he goes with the lease. New jokes, new song parodies; as usual, somewhat on the "blue" side.

WONDERFUL GISELE McKenzie, singer, pianist, violinist, has opened the Waldorf Astoria's elegant Empire Room in grand style. Besides oceans of talent, she has that indescribable quality known as class.

Eddie Adams has done the honors in opening the Plaza Hotel's famed Persian Room oasis. She has a well-paced and varied routine, with emphasis on good-natured fun at the expense of certain types and personalities.

THE PIERRE HOTEL'S tasteful Cotillion Room is continuing with a show format it discovered last season to be highly satisfactory. This consists of a program employing three singers devoted to the works of a single popular composer. The current effort is "An Evening With Irving Berlin."

Russell Nye, Betty Madigan and Larry Douglas, all well known to the musical stage, do the honors. The St. Regis' Maisonette, which previously specialized in female vocalists, is trying a departure this fall with an intimate revue called "Vive de Difference," featuring fluff song and sketch material by Roger Price and Michael Brown.

INTIMATE PERENNIALS such as the Blue Angel, One Fifth Avenue, Julius Monk's Downstairs at the Upstairs and Upstairs at the Downstairs, the Bon Soir and so on have put on their fall clothes. The hot jazz spots such as the Embers, Birdland, Eddie Condon's, Village Vanguard and the Roundtable are rocking as usual.

Pink Carnation Ball Joins Village's Major Social Events

Palm Springs Auxiliary of Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation is literally knee-deep in pink carnations and will continue in this ruse until November 21, when the Pink Carnation Ball will make its debut and take its place on the social calendar of Palm Springs, joining the other big annual charity balls which add more glamour and glitter and are synonymous with Palm Springs.

Mrs. Jack Copass, Mrs. Richard Bagdasarian, Mrs. John Luccarelli and Mrs. Bruno Di Grandi, executive committee of the Pink Carnation Ball, report all members of their neophyte organization are expending all effort to make Saturday, November 21, El Mirado, an evening to remember. Chef Gerhart Knaak, who met Wednesday with the executive committee of the Pink Carnation Ball, has selected a gourmet menu for this gala debut.

Although tickets for the ball were first offered to the public October 7, Mrs. Ross Winans, chairman of tickets and reservations, reported at the Thursday meeting of the Auxiliary, that 100 reservations had been received in the first 24 hours. Mrs. Winans' number is FA 5-5071; other members of her committee who may be called for reservations are Mrs. Elizabeth Englander, FA 4-2072; Mrs. George Morris, FA 5-2904; Mrs. Isabelle Cooper, FA 5-7700; Mrs. George Chandler, FA 4-9304 and Mrs. Joseph Cirone, FA 5-2537.

A cocktail hour will herald the festivities of the semi-formal Pink Carnation Ball. Mrs. Morris Gold, assisted by Mrs. Irvin Hall, will be in charge of door prizes, which will be numerous and lovely. The executive committee has asked Mrs. Cecil Smith to be in charge of decorations, and she will be assisted by Mmes. Jack Copass, Doak Davis, C. C. Hutchens, Robin Anderson, George Morris, Don Williams, Kenneth Herman, Jeanette Kosbie and A. J. L. Hutchinson. Mrs. Beth Grant, Rancho Mirage, is chairman for the Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert areas, and calls should be directed to her at FA 8-2891.

Palm Springs Auxiliary AVCC will continue its special pre-ball meetings each Wednesday, until further notice from the executive committee. The next called meeting for the Pink Carnation Ball will be Wednesday, October 14, Oasis Hotel. The business meeting will start promptly, 11 a.m., conclude promptly 12 noon; a no-host luncheon will follow in the Oasis dining room.

Assuring his Cielo Vista P-TA audience that the junior college site will be changed if competent authority declare it unsafe, Coachella Valley Junior College Trustee William Mason urged an affirmative vote in the October 13th School Bond election.

Also speaking at the meeting, held Tuesday evening in the cafeteria, Hardin Hart, chairman of the Citizens' Advisory Committee, explained that double sessions at elementary schools and overcrowded junior and senior high schools are inevitable unless the bond issue passes.

The program, arranged by Mrs. Paul Johnson and Mrs. Herbert R. Mennell Jr., included a flag salute by Mrs. Josephine Oddous' first grade, songs by Mrs. William Lux's fourth grade, and an introduction of the teaching staff by Warren H. Danielson, principal.

More than 300 parents, teachers and children were present for the event which started off with an ice cream and cake social, served by parents. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jaulang, Mrs. Daniel Reyes, Mrs. John G. Torres, Mrs. Bror A. Soderlund, and Charles Hoffmeier.

Operating the projection machine for the children's outdoor cartoons were Dr. George M. Millie and Bror A. Soderlund.

After the business portion of the meeting which included the treasury report by Mrs. George M. Millie and minutes of the last meeting by Mrs. Henry V. Cleary, recording secretary, awards were announced by Mrs. John F. Gallarini, president. For the largest attendance, Mrs. Jeanne Hepburn's fifth-and sixth-grade room and Mrs. Allie Anderson's kindergarten room, were awarded photograph records. To Mrs. Joe Lozano, who sat in the lucky chair, went a year's subscription to the P-TA magazine.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS from Europe, Ragna Kjellman of Norway and Wolff Boonecke of Germany, were welcomed to Palm Springs at a Sunday night party at the Cuiver Nichols home. Standing back of them are the other young people at the party. (Sun Photo).

Besides her globe trotting, which included Russia, Mrs. Jameson is a student of Yogi and has a real estate and insurance business and once ran a construction firm. She is a native of Corona, where she still resides. She will tell the A.A.U.W. members about her visits with the famous Dr. Albert Schweitzer in French Equatorial Africa.

Hospitality chairman Mrs. Brad Davis, will be in charge of the Open House for visitors, and her hostesses will be the board of directors: Mmes. John C. Bernet, Hazel M. Gross, Cecil Jones, Laura V. Long, Joseph Clapp, Cornelius Maffie, Charles Sakin, Jerome Bunker, H. C. Carpenter, Gerald Forstvedt, Len Owens.

Exchange Students from Europe Welcomed to Palm Springs

Flags of all nations, Mexican food, and group singing combined to make a pleasant Sunday night supper party, when Cuiver and Sallie Nichols entertained in their garden for foreign students, members of the American Field Service board of directors, and their families. The American Field Service, of which Mrs. Nichols is local chapter president, brings outstanding foreign students to America to live in foster homes here and complete the senior year in local high schools.

This year Palm Springs welcomes two European guests: Ragna Kjellman from Norway, and Wolff Boonecke from Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rosin and Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Miner have extended the hospitality of their homes to these young people, who won all hearts at the welcome party given in their honor.

In addition to the students and their foster parents, the guest list included: Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Hart and son Mike, Dr. and Mrs. Seamus Nunan and son Terry, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Staley and son Philip, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Webster and Nicolee and Chip Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Williams, Mari Ann and Geoffrey Williams, and Jo Jo Rosin.

Palm Desert Woman's Club Meets Again

The Palm Desert Woman's Club will open its 10th season October 15 with a luncheon-meeting at the Shadow Mountain Club at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. L. W. Thompson will preside as the club's new president for the 1959-60 year.

"The Romance of Living" presented by John McMahon will be the theme of the meeting. Mr. McMahon has had wide experience both in this country and abroad, having been lecturer, director, producer and author. His approach to his subject is basically psychological with a warm informal "humanness." He brings with him, his protégé, Peter Reynolds, who has appeared in fine productions both in movies and in television. Roles in "The Robe," "The Egyptian," "The Silver Chalice" and "Desiree" are to his credit. He will accompany himself on the guitar with impressions of far away places.

Mrs. Philip McClay, program chairman, arranged this interesting afternoon for club members. She has many more exciting events to entertain and interest members in the months to follow. All former members are urged to attend and new members will be cordially welcomed.

Flash bulbs flared and cameras clicked... as Don the Beachcomber opened its doors Thursday night for its (lucky) seventh opening... Reservations were at capacity and the early crowd filled the place... so that the rope went up for the first time this season and the lobby was filled with waiting diners... Sunny Sund occupied the Queen's Chair and daughter Karen (a miniature Sunny) was celebrating her 10th birthday... Pat O'Dea and Eddie King were welcoming back hosts of customers in aloha-mood... Waiters were bringing regulars their chopsticks in bamboo holders from the Celebrity Case... and waiters were everywhere at once... quietly serving the food for which Beachcomber is famous...

The crowd was filled with familiar faces... At a center table in the main room were the Francis Gudgeons (Marjorie Rambeau) and General and Mrs. Victor Bertrandias... Near by the Glenn Austins were dining with Mary and Allan Jones... S. P. Manasse was hosting a table... where three WAIF leaders (and close friends) were gathered... his wife Margaret, Vicki Malouf (Billy is in L.A.) and Helen Kirk (Ken is back east)... The Asher Levis and A. R. Simons and Mrs. Sol Lesser (Sol will be down this weekend) and Mrs. Charles Callahan with them... Frankie (Mrs. Leo) Spitz (just returned from Europe) had with her Cecelia Ager of the New York Times and Sol Siegel of MGM...

The Nat Dumonts (he's up to his ears in arrangements for the Democratic Convention) were with Millie Bollman and son Don, Jim Braden and Connie Barleau... The Oliver Jaynes (who were here from Florida this week) were with the Ward Risvolds and the William Finemans of Albany... The Eddie Silvermans headed a table which included the Frank Bogerts... Maxine Lewis and Joe Eckhouse (Lerner's vice president)... Beachcomber vice president Bud Bachtold and his wife were dining with the Bob Kesslers... Arthur Cameron was in a party that also included Charlotte and C. C. Hutchens... Caught by the ropes... and waiting to get in to their table... were Bertha and Ed Robbin (just down from Reno) with Joan McManus and her escort Alan Maclean... Dr. and Mrs. Karl Walz were with the M. J. Devlins (he's a senior partner in the Balemman-Eichler investment company in L. A.)... The Harry Bernsteins were celebrating her birthday... and Midge (with an orchid on her shoulder) had her mother among their guests... Mary Hurrell arrived with Monte and Rita Warshawer and Mrs. Milton Joseph... Danielle Nemeroff (looking Parisian as usual)... the Gordon Browns... I never did get them all sorted out... Among twosomes were Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grow (they had that intimate little table by the window garden)... Dorothy and Walter Freund... the Russes... Went on to El Mirador... Beachcomber's orchid leis and all... danced to the music of Billy Wades... Bob and Helen Baker... Katie Nelson with Frank Day (tape recording for KDES)... the Austin Petersons... beautifully-gowned Bess Bender with her brother Maury Wax... the Jerry Mitchells... the Bob Howards... Also the M. O. Hendersons, Earl Hendersons, Maury Greenspoon, Frank Harper... Artie Samish and Jerry Nathanson... and dozens more...

Allen's orchestra (really swinging it in the Kiva Room)... and Tex Kidwell sang "Wayward Wind" for us... Several of the Beachcomber crowd dropped into the Kiva Room afterwards... The Robbin's party sat next to us... We encountered the M. O. Andersons as we were leaving... and others came before and after... The room was well-filled with convention delegates... Madelyn and Dan Wagner entertained at a small dinner party at their home on Paseo Delo, last night... Guests included Major-General and Mrs. Victor Bertrandias, Sally and Culver Nichols, Tom Kioleys, Warren Slaughters, Ward Risvolds and Commander and Mrs. Reginald Venable... Saw Peggy Dexter at Chi Chi the other noon... looking pretty as a picture in a pink kerchief hat and with a blossom-decorated tote bag gay as spring-time blossoms... and happy over the news of her third grandchild... The little girl... daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blair E. Thomas of Denver... has been named Pamela Lynn after her young aunt Pamela D'Auvray... She has an older sister Laurie Ann and an older brother Gary... The Thomases were here on a visit last April... Marie and Wilson Connolly write en route from Hong Kong to Kobe that Helen and Bill Reichel and Mrs. Harold English had been with them on the SS President Cleveland from Los Angeles to Yokohama... The others had disembarked to tour Japan... while the Connollys continued on the Manila and Hong Kong... which they found simply fabulous... They called it a buyer's paradise since one dollar bill is worth $3.73 there...

Mrs. Fred Payne Clatworthy (she's a cousin to the Harry Clatworthy) writes from Estes Park that they have nine inches of snow and a bear who walks on the roof and peeks into the windows... It makes her think that she and her daughter Helen may be heading for Palm Springs soon... to occupy their house at 608 West Ramon... A Desert Sun subscriber since its first edition... Mrs. Clatworthy has spent many winters here... Her son Fred (he's just been named manager of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County) attended high school here when classes were held in Banning... and his mother was on a committee with Nellie Coffman to "do something about the bus breaking down"... Her late husband was said to have taken the first color pictures of Mexico, Hawaii and New Zealand and his photographs appeared in many issues of National Geographic...

Canbys Back From Wyoming

It was snowing in Wyoming and the thermometer stood at 16 degrees above zero when the Edward Canbys decided summer had ended and headed for Palm Springs, arriving home Sunday evening.

The Canbys, who spent the summer in DuBois with their three young people, have almost completed building their two-story cabin, which stands 26 feet high.

The senior Canbys stayed in DuBois a few weeks longer after seeing their children off to school. Judy is attending the University of Denver where she entered her first year and their twin sons, Tommy and Dickie, flew back to Palm Springs in time for the opening of the Palm Springs High School where they are sophomores.

'The Big Party' Has Premiere

By FRED DANZIG
NEW YORK (UPI)—Playhouse 90 gave way to Penthouse 90 on CBS-TV Thursday night as "The Big Party" premiered.

There were lots of laughs and entertaining moments as a bunch of boys and girls whooped it up in host Rock Hudson's "penthouse apartment."

THE BOYS AND girls included Sammy Davis Jr., Mort Sahl, Carlos Montoya, Matt Dennis, Talulah Bankhead, Lisa Kirk and Esther Williams, all gathered together to breathe spontaneity under chief writer Goodman Ace's skillful guidance.

Near the start, Rock and Sammy exchanged verbal shoe-horns to squeeze into some pseudo-casual party type chit-chat. I thought we were in for a disastrous show. After all, a "party" on TV must be rigged to seem spontaneous or it goes bust. But then Sammy began doing some of his superb, unhurried, fully drawn impersonations of actors and singers and things began to swing.

TAILULAH SPILLED a couple of drinks and the performers lulled me into feeling they were really having a ball. There was as much ebullience as we normally find in a pantomime quiz show, but a lot more sophistication and wit.

Before the evening, Talu and Miss Williams trade some fifty barbs, Mort Sahl delivered a fast monologue about matter political and theatrical and that had depth and an "inside" flavor; Lisa Kirk sang; Montoya played his guitar; Hudson sang, played a little piano, and the happy pace rolled on.

Hudson proved to be an excellent host and displayed a fine knack for light comedy. Despite the uneven start, the commercials and station breaks, the party was a success.

TO QUOTE A phrase from a song in Bob Hope's first hour special of the season Thursday night: He muddled through.

The NBC-TV special was uneventful, generally unfunny and appeared under-rehearsed. Hope's guests were Dean Martin, Natalie Wood and four of Bing Crosby's sons, Gary, Dennis, Philip and Lindsay. Since the boys had little to do, the boys concentrated on trying to upstage each other and anyone else around. I thought Gary came out ahead. He manipulates his lips in a pardon-the-expression, Jerry Lewis pout.

ALONG WITH Hope's opening monologue, the Dodgers, Khrushchev, President Eisenhower's golf and cooking hobbies, received his attention, there was a skit that attempted to poke fun at TV's crime show trend but failed to generate steam and was sadly diffused.

Another segment featured Bob and Dean swapping restaurant jokes and their usual sotto voce badinage saved the night from being a total loss.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Upcoming person-to-person guests on CBS-TV: James and Pamela Mason, fashion authority Edith Head... Victor Borge, whose NBC-TV special unrolls next Friday night, reports that he had so much extra footage from his on-location work in Denmark that he had to cut a sequence taken in a riding hall. He hopes to use it in his second show of the season.

CBS-TV's 20th Century has prepared a documentary, "Down Range," that deals with America's missile tracking range in the South Atlantic... London's famed St. Paul's Cathedral Boys' Choir makes its American TV debut on NBC-TV's Tuesday, Dec. 22 star-time special.

MORMON CHOR TO BE TELECAST

The world-acclaimed Salt Lake Tabernacle Choir of the Mormon Church will be seen on KTTV singing their best-selling release, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," in a special live telecast (through cooperation of KSL-TV) from the famed Tabernacle in Salt Lake City, of the 129th semi-annual conference of the Mormon Church, Sunday, Oct. 11, 10 a.m.-12 noon, Channel 11.

The Tabernacle Choir, famed musical organization, has attained high musical stature all over the world and has been heard "in concert" and on radio by millions of people. The choir is noted for their precision of timing and rhythm and their clean and pure tone color. They have a repertoire of more than 1,000 numbers.

PEOPLE FROM every walk of life compose the 375-voice choir which features eight-part harmony, made possible by a four-part women's chorus and a four-part men's chorus.

San Jacinto Gridders Blank Indians by 19 to 0

SAN JACINTO LAST NIGHT displayed outstanding teamwork to trample the Indians, 19-0, in the final pre-league game. Next Friday Palm Springs will open league play at Hemet. Pictured above, first picture, San Jacinto halfback George Reed was tackled by Palm

Second photo shows Indian back Bill Smith jumping on a fumble that he himself dropped while running. Despite excellent playing by some members of the Indian team, the lack of close teamwork and experience on the field caused the defeat by the Tigers. Photos at right, with the game over, shows team members walking dejectedly off the field. This was the Indians third consecutive loss. Pic-

Indians Lose to San Jacinto 19-0

In sad plight at the end of their pre-league season, Palm Springs Indians took another tromping last night from San Jacinto when the Tigers roared across the goal line three times for a 19-0 score against the Indians.

Fighting all the way, the Indians were just outplayed and outclassed by Tiger teamwork, and San Jacinto racked up the third straight loss for the Indians.

George Reed, the 160-pound Tiger halfback, did all the scoring for San Jacinto, taking the ball across in a three-yard plunge, a one-yard plunge, and a 10-yard run.

SAN JACINTO SCORED only one point after touchdown and the kicking was done by Tiger Guard Hay Giesler.

Palm Springs in trying to score against the visably strong San Jacinto team, just didn't have a chance, mainly because they were playing in spurts, good plays followed by bad ones.

One of the real bad plays of the evening, that brought Palm Springs rooters to their feet in almost a verbal protest was in the second quarter, when with less than 14 yards from an Indian TD, fourth down and one yard to go for a first down, Tony Gomez hurled a short pass to end Jeff Rollins, who grabbed it only to lose it when he was hit by a Tiger tackler.

Rams Underdogs By 6 in Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) — The crippled Los Angeles Rams are 6-point underdogs for their National Football League game Sunday with the burly Chicago Bears.

For the Rams — still seeking their first league victory of the season — the injuries and the odds are tied in closely.

Missing from the Los Angeles lineup will be Gene Brito for sure, all-pro halfback Jon Arnett probably, and Will Sherman and Ed Medor possibly.

Arnett is nursing a leg injury, Brito is out for the season with a broken ankle and defensive backs Sherman and Medor have bruised ribs and a sore foot — respectively.

Stokbak and Gordon keggers had the high team series for the week, 2665 and also the high team game, 221. For the season, to date, DiGrandi bowlers hold the series record, 2788, and the game mark, too, 971.

George Kuffner of Logan and Sons, rolled the high individual series this week, 552, and Allen Davis, Stokbak and Gordon, the high game, 212. Season series high is held by Wilbur Neblung, DiGrandi, 599. He also has the season's highest game, 217.

FIRE EXTINGUISHER MANDATORY ON ALL BOATS NEXT YEAR

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Every motor boat in California will have to be equipped with a fire extinguisher next year, at a cost of at least $18 to the owners, Chairman Nathan Fairbairn of the Small Craft Harbors Commission said Thursday.

Fairbairn said the new boating law passed by the Legislature made an extinguisher mandatory for every motor boat. Coast Guard regulations require an extinguisher only on boats 26 feet in length or longer. A survey made by the commission found that extinguishers meeting the standards of the new law sell for $18 and up.

Haddock Reports Interest High in Basketball Loop

Inquiries are already coming in to the City Recreation Department for information on the 15th Annual City Basketball League which will get under way in November, Howard Haddock of the department, said today.

"Anyone interested is urged to contact the Recreation Department at the City Hall or be at the High School gymnasium on the evening of October 20 when practice will start," he said.

"Entry fee for each team will be $10 and each team must have a sponsor."

"We are still in need of basketball referees and would like to hear from anyone interested."

Practice sessions will be held Tuesday and Thursday night at the High School Gym from 7 to 10 o'clock. All over 18 years of age are eligible to take part in the play.

When the league gets under way, double-headers will be played Tuesday and Thursday nights, starting at 7 p. m.

Sanders Tops Pros With 66 At Hesperia

HESPERIA (UPI) — Doug Sanders, the Beau Brummell of the professional golf circuit, had a one-stroke lead today going into the final round of the $20,000 Hesperia Open.

Sanders, 26-year-old former University of Florida player, from Miami Beach, toured this high desert course in a 6-under par 66 yesterday in the second round. Coupled with his 68 of the first round, this gave him a 36-hole total of 134 and a one stroke edge over Joe Kirkwood Jr., Studio City, Calif., who has been devoting more time to his bowling alley than to golf in recent months.

Kirkwood, 39, known to movie fans as the clean-living Joe Palooka, had 67-68-135 to become the surprise of the tournament. He is not a regular traveler on the pro circuit and has not won a major tournament since 1953.

Jack Fleck, dark-horse winner of the 1955 U.S. Open from Tazana, Calif., had a first round 66 to become the temporary leader but blew to a 71 in the second round for a 36-hole total of 137. He was tied for third place with Don Fairfield, Casey, Ill., who had 70-67.

A field of 124 starters was cut after the second round to the low 60 pros and low 10 amateurs.

The Old Pros Plus One Kid Did it for the Dodgers

By OSCAR FRALEY

CHICAGO (UPI) — There were a lot of Dodger heroes.

Most of them were of the old crowd, the gang who knew the cheers and jeers back in the long-gone days at Brooklyn before they went West and started dressing like the Hollywood stars with whom they romp.

Like Duke Snider, the handsome guy with the ugly knee, whose homer started the victory march in Thursday's 9 to 3 World Series finale against the White Sox.

Like Carl Furillo, the hard coal customer from the Pennsylvania mountains who got them there in the first place via the playoffs and did it again to win a series game as they hit the big jackpot.

Like Gil Hodges, the quiet man whose big blow took another of the four games they needed.

And like Charlie Neal, whose two blows out of the park were the payoff shots in the other one.

They're all part of the old gang from Flatbush and so, in a way, as the Dodgers came all the way from seventh place 1953 finish to the championship of the baseball world and cleaned it up with a wild, weird and wacky inning which produced six runs, it was fitting after only two years in the Golden West that they play solos in the winning band.

YET IT WAS ONE of the new ones, a kid who wouldn't know there in the first place via the playoffs and did it again to win a series game as they hit the big jackpot.

hero of the 1959 World Series.

That would be 24-year-old Larry Sherry, a native of Pueblo, Colo., who makes that fast ball really hum when he unwinds his six feet, two inches and puts his 192 pounds behind it.

WHAT HE DID was the difference.

Young Larry pitched in four games for the Dodgers in this annual go-round. He saved two of them for his pitching mates—and won two others. It took him only 12 2-3 innings, but when it was over he had yielded a mere eight hits, two walks and, more important, only one run.

He had pitched in four vital, nerve-ripping games in the space of seven days and it was his rugged right arm which was the balance of power.

Rodriguez Cries At Draw Decision In Clat Battle

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Kid (Sixto) Rodriguez shed tears but his manager, Karl Ashley, was philosophical today over a "hometown" decision they claimed left them with a draw instead of a victory over light heavyweight contender Von Clay.

Ashley thought his 3-1 underdog from San Anselmo, Calif., "won big" in his nationally televised 10-round bout with Clay, a knockout artist who kept his unbeaten string intact at 12 bouts. The sixth-ranked Clay now has a 10-0-2 log with eight kayos.

As Rodriguez wept in his dressing room, Ashley said, "It was a hometown decision, but I guess we were lucky to get a draw. We'd like a rematch but it'll have to be on neutral ground."

Rodriguez, making his eastern debut, said he thought he earned the fight by winning "seven or eight rounds" with slick jabs and quick combinations to the head of baffled Clay, who never got a real chance to unleash his power.

DODGERS PLAN FOR BIG THINGS IN '60

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Dodgers sat atop the baseball world today, and there was every indication the club's front office already was designing plans for future conquests.

When Dodger manager Walt Alston returned with most of his squad from Chicago Friday night, he told reporters "It's a little too early to think about next year's team." He was obviously savoring the welcome of 3,500 ardent fans as the world champion Dodgers came home with all the marbles after a dismal 1958 season in which they finished seventh.

But Alston said he would "spend a few days talking with club officials" before he returns to his Ohio home. Some of the time may be spent discussing contract terms for next season, since he has not signed for 1960. But the Dodger field leader almost certainly will review the prospects for next season with General Manager E. J. (Buzzy) Bavasi and other team officials.

"We're always looking for help," said Buzzy frankly after the Dodgers routed the White Sox Thursday. But he also predicted a bright future for the Dodgers because of the youth of the team — particularly the pitching staff of

Moss Heads Fast Field in Grand Prix

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — A nine-race amateur road racing program gets underway here today at the Riverside Raceway as a preliminary to the $25,000 second annual United States Grand Prix Sunday.

In today's program the entrants will be competing for trophies in races for both production model and modified class cars. Among the 130 drivers entered were many of the world's leading sports car pilots who will be driving in Sunday's 200-mile Prix.

A field of 65 drivers was entered in the Grand Prix over the sporty course but qualifying trials Sunday morning were expected to reduce the field to 30 drivers.

England's Stirling Moss, ranked as the world's leading sports car driver, heads the competitors in the Grand Prix and will be driving a factory entry Aston Martin IRB2. The Englishman this year won the world's championship of sports car manufacturers for Aston Martin in Europe.

His closest rival was the Italian Ferrari and that factory has flown over its three-liter car to be driven in the Grand Prix by Phil Hill of Santa Monica, Calif.

CARE Issues Appeal for Aid For Homeless

LOS ANGELES — An appeal for the typhoon victims in Korea where thousands have been left homeless and destitute was voiced today by Edward J. Flynn, western director of CARE.

The relief agency is in the process of distributing 15,000 pairs of shoes and 3,000 suits of underwear as an initial step following destruction in the wake of Typhoon Sarah, he said. Value of the CARE items is placed at $18,500. "CARE is planning further aid in the form of blankets, food packages, plows and other farm tools and Self Help equipment," the CARE spokesman said. "Immediate objective is assistance for the families who lost their homes and farms."

The storm devastated the southwest coastal regions of the country, destroying more than 50,000 dwellings. Total damage estimated by the Korean government is more than $40,000,000. Death toll was 600.

The CARE representative urged donors to help CARE get more aid to these stricken people. Contributions in any amount may be sent to CARE, 215 West Fifth Street, Los Angeles 13, or to your local CARE office.

Brazilian Vote For Rhinoceros

SAO PAULO, Brazil (UPI)—Cacareco, a female rhinoceros, was the written-in favorite of tens of thousands of voters in Sunday's local elections, apparently as a token of protest against the high cost of living.

Mounting returns indicated that Cacareco polled 8 to 10 per cent of the total vote on the municipal council — perhaps 100,000 votes in all. Another 5 per cent of the ballots were blank, a traditional symbol of protest in Brazil.

Freeway Link Opened Thursday

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — A new 4.5-mile freeway link connecting link connecting Riverside and San Bernardino formally was opened to traffic Thursday.

The cost of the new stretch of the Riverside Freeway between the county line and the three-level interchange east of Colton was five million dollars.

Visits to Mexico Are Interesting

By FAFELA MARMOLEJO V.

Como estan con su espanol? (How are you with your Spanish)... I think it is medio trabajo (sort of hard) porque (because), you can't see en donde (where) the accent goes, as you know in Spanish you pronounce cada letra (each letter) but in order to pronounce them bien (right) you have to escribir (to write) the right pronunciation y sobre todo (and above all else) the accent debe ser incado (should be shown) otherwise the word will have a different meaning... talking of meaning shall we see what our friends nos dicen? (will tell us?)

MANUEL BERROTERAN y su hermana (and his sister) Esperanza, se fueron (went) para (to) Mexico no parando (not stopping) until they got to the hermosa ciudad (beautiful city of Acapulco)... Beautiful? Super, they tell their friends... and we believe them porque (because) everyone that has been there nos dicen lo mismo (tell us the same thing). Algun dia (some day) Dios mediante (God being willing) we shall try and get there... Hope you enjoyed the trip!

MARIA DEL REFUJO Gonzales (Cucal), Carmen Jurado's mother, left for Mexico on Monday... did I say she left?... well despues (after) they caught the camion (bus) at Indio, cuando no pudieron (when they couldn't) catch the bus in Banning because Cuca forgot her papeles de ciudadania (citizenship papers) at home, in the midst of her rush... was she excited?... well... not very mucho!... with Cuca was going Jesus Medrano and Sofia Fuentes from Banning.

CONNIE YBARRA is back... or rather was back... hasta que (until) she left for Riverside to stay por diez dias (for 10 days)... then back to Palm Springs to her house, her friends and her work... It's good to have you back.

Let us not forget los chamacos (the children) that are crossing the streets y no noma (and not only) the children, the grown ups as well... A darles el derecho (let's give them the right) of way... Que Dios los bendiga (May God bless you)... y Hasta Luego.

DHS Water Tank Project Is Completed

300,000 Gallon Facility Located In DHS Highlands

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Water company officials today reported completion of their new 300,000-gallon water tank in Desert Hot Springs Highlands as the area passed a new milestone in its real estate development.

Austin Finch, of the Desert Hot Springs Water Co., said the huge tank was completed this week.

At the same time, DHS Realtor and Highlands developer Clifford Babin announced that the area marked a new record building pace last month.

Babin said the Highlands area saw construction of 18 new homes, three duplexes, four apartment buildings of four units and two of three units each during the month of September.

He added that work will start on a new 12-unit Highland Lodge and a new cocktail lounge. Babin said plans are also in the mill for construction of a bowling alley on Hacienda Drive by the DHS Highlands development group.

Cora Jackson Wins in Contest

CATHEDRAL CITY — Mrs. Cora Jackson of 586 B Street is the winner of an electric steam and dry iron as the result of a recent contest promoted by the A. E. Staley Manufacturing Co. of Decatur, Ill.

She narrowly missed being one of the 10 luckier women each of whom won two Studebaker Larks. The contest called for the completion of a jingle submitted with a label from either of the Staley products.

BROWN HAILS NEWSPAPERS IN PROCLAMATION

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today that "in a world threatened as never before with the loss of freedom, newspapers stand guard over the rights of free people."

He proclaimed Oct. 15-21 as Newspaper Week in California.

Brown noted that National Newspaper Week was founded by John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

"LUCKY PARKERS" at Cameron Center this week are shown above, with owners of these license plates eligible to receive a free potted palm tree from the Cameron Center offices. George E. Cameron, Jr., is offering the prizes in the hope that more palm trees will flourish in Palm Springs. A "Mystery Photographer" takes the pictures at unspecified times, and winners are reproduced in The Desert Sun every other Saturday.

for the addition in the future of a stadium, homemaking building, combination music-arts building, swimming pool and creative arts center in the form of an auditorium - TV studio to seat 999 persons.

DORMITORIES WILL probably be added later for the convenience of students from Desert Center and other sections of the district where daily commuting is impossible. The dormitories would also be used by students attending here from other districts.

The major advantage to having a local junior college is the convenience to high school graduates who would no longer have to go to other districts or private colleges elsewhere for an advanced education.

As in other districts, tuition would be free to local students and would be paid through the district tax which is now in effect.

FROM THE STANDPOINT of area economy, this would be an advantage because all tax monies for college use would be kept here. When local students are forced to other districts to attend junior college, tax monies go with them, since Riverside County has to reimburse those districts for tuition costs.

The junior college would become the center of cultural activity for Coachella Valley — something sorely needed in the area. Here is where the area's archives would be maintained.

The college would become a focal point for local archeological finds and cultural achievements by valley residents.

Jail Escapee Sentenced To 1-5 Years

Youth Certified To California Youth Authority

INDIO—A prisoner who escaped from the Coachella City jail last Sept. 9 was sentenced this week by Superior Judge Hilton H. McCabe here to a prison term of from 1 to 5 years.

The defendant, Felix Townen, pleaded guilty to the charge in addition to a charge of grand theft for which he received a sentence of 1 to 5 years. Judge McCabe ordered him to serve the sentences concurrently.

ACCORDING TO police records, Townen took a jeep owned by the city after escaping from the jail where he had been confined on a vagrancy charge. He was captured shortly after the escape.

In a second action yesterday, Judge McCabe certified Eddie Arenas Perez, 19, Blythe, to the California Youth Authority for acceptance after Perez pleaded guilty to slipping into a telephone booth on July 28 last year and breaking open the change box.

HE WAS ONE of several youths taking part in the theft. Blythe police nabbed the group shortly after the theft was discovered. The youth had also been charged with burglarizing a market in Blythe but this count was dismissed by the court in the interest of justice.

Dam Proposed To Aid North

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Russian engineer says it might be possible to improve the climate of the north with the help of a 55-mile dam across the Bering Strait between the Soviet Union and Alaska.

With atomic power, he would pump water by the thousands of cubic miles from the warm Pacific side of the dam into the cold arctic side.

The idea is attributed by the Moscow newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda to A. I. Shumilin.

Baby food sales in the U.S. have gone up nearly 45 per cent in the past decade, although the birth rate has risen only 10 per cent.
